

Helena and Aurora Range Advocates Inc.

Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin is an inspiring range of banded ironstone formation (BIF) hills and outcrops with tall Inland White Gums (Eucalyptus capillosa subsp. capillosa) and a suite of rare flora, birds and other fauna adding to its unique majesty. Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin is located 2 hours north of Southern Cross (~6 hours east of Perth) in the Eastern Goldfields, Central Yilgarn and Great Western Woodlands of Western Australia.

HARA Inc.

Helena and Aurora Range Advocates Inc. (HARA Inc.) is a not for profit organisation that is dedicated towards speaking out for the full protection of Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin, now and in the future, to be achieved with the exclusion of all mining activities from Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin.

The objective of Helena and Aurora Range Advocates Inc. is:

“to act as an advocate for the protection of the biodiversity and landscape values of Helena and Aurora Range for future generations.”

HARA acts as a central point, for communication between interested parties and coordination of activities and actions to:

- increase public awareness of the conservation and landscape values of Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin.
- demonstrate the wide community support that Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin has as a traditional and natural heritage area, and
- send a strong message to our decision makers, planners and governments that there is a need to have areas such as Helena and Aurora Range, Bungalbin, excluded from mining activity to protect our heritage.
